Dear Glenn,

I am chagrined that I won't be able to make the twenty-fifth birthday of your incarnation as Director of the Hoover Institution. I recall fondly being with you and Frank Barnett, I think it was in San Francisco, at just about the time you began your work with Hoover. It is heartwarming to see and realize what you have accomplished in a short quarter of a century.

I join all your friends and admirers in extending heartiest congratulations and warm best wishes for the future to you and Rita and to the Hoover Institution.

Yours,

Bill

I am addressing this letter to all of you invited to the dinner marking Glenn Campbell's twenty-fifth anniversary as Director of the Hoover Institution on July 18 at the Stanford Faculty Club, and I hope you will please excuse this informal method of doing so.

The purpose of this letter is to invite you to help us honor Glenn at this dinner in a special way. Specifically, I would be very grateful if you could address a letter or cable to Glenn (at the address given below) that may be presented to him following dinner:

Dr. W. Glenn Campbell
c/o John H. Moore
Acting Deputy Director
Hoover Institution
Stanford, California 94305

With my appreciation and good wishes,

Emil Mosbacher, Jr.
